Keynote lectures will be held by

XVIII International Conference on Finance and Banking FI BA 2020

Professor Rita Laura D'Ecclesia, PhD. (Sapienza University of Rome)

Professor Alexandru Minea, PhD. (University of Auvergne, Clermont-Ferrand)

Euro Working Group for Commodities and Financial Modelling 63rd Meeting

Professor Damiano Brigo, PhD. (Imperial College, London)

o. Univ.-Prof. Mag. Dr. Georg Pflug (University of Wien)

The two conferences will have some sessions in common, according to specific research topics, while other sessions will be scheduled in line with the standard conference organization.

A round table on "The role of Fintech in the financial market dynamics" will be organized in line with the EWGCFM tradition, where participants from academia and financial institutions share their ideas.

Regular parallel sessions will be organized with the presentation of refereed papers followed by a discussant presentation. The discussant assignments will be made by the conference organizers until March 12, 2020. Each paper will be sent to the discussant by the conference organizers.

A best Ph.D. paper award (500 Euros) will be assigned in line with the tradition of the two groups: the Francesco Paris annual award and FI BA 2020 conference award. The awarding ceremony will take place during the event. The candidate(s) must be registered for the joint conference EWGCFM & FI BA 2020 at the time of submission of the paper. He/she (or they) cannot hold a Ph.D. at the time of submission of the paper. Papers can only be authored by one Ph.D. student; those co-authored with other faculty members are not eligible.

The conference language is English.

Conference venue: FACULTY OF FINANCE AND BANKING, Bucharest University of Economic Studies (address: 5-7 Mihail Moxa Street, Bucharest, Romania).

Publication Opportunity

All papers presented at the conference are eligible to be considered for publication in a Special Issue of an international journal.
